

The weasel in the sack

The play is about a poor family: a mother, her daughter Fred and her two sons, Algenon and Marmaduke. Because they are so poor, she sends her two sons out into the world to come back with some money.

So, one day the two sons went into the forest and they wanted to defeat the dragon. In the forest they met an old woman. She asked them for money, but they didn't have. Then they met the dragon and fought with him. They lost the fight and they had to work for him for seven years.

Then the mother sent her daughter into the forest. She also met the old woman who asked the girl for some money. The nice girl gave her half of her money.

The old woman gave her a flute. Fred also met the dragon, she played on her flute and the dragon slept. Then he was handcuffed. Fred got a little gift from the old woman. It was a bag of money! Her brothers came out and took the bag home. The girl stayed with the old woman and they became friends. In the end it turned out that the old woman and the girl were mother and daughter. And they were queen and princess!

I especially liked the special effects, the fog as the dragon appeared. I think the play was great, the actors asked the audience for advice while playing. The play was fantastic as it was interactive. We were on stage! The music was well chosen for the play.

At last, I can say it was great!
